

Grading Rubric

A 93-100

1. Amazing! You showed initiative and originality.
2. You did something special.
3. You went beyond expectations
4. You broke the rules in a creative way.
5. You craftsmanship is excellent.
6. Excellent solution to the problem.
7. Excellent work ethic. You stayed focused throughout the class each day.
8. Willing to tutor other students', which is the highest level on the Scaffolding scale.

B 85-92

1. It is good. You were a self-starter.
2. You did everything requested – followed all directions the first time.
3. Somewhat focused each day.
4. Focused on guided practice each day.
5. You can verbalize the thought process of what was instructed.

C 77-84

1. You did just enough to get by.
2. You did minimum requirements for a C – nothing more.
3. You might have thrown it together? Didn't care much for this project?
4. Poor craftsmanship – lacks skill. Design principles are off.
5. Socializing during class and/or eyes were on computer and not instructional presentation.

D 69-76

1. It is not finished.
2. You did not meet the lesson objectives/goals.
4. You forgot to finish it or you hurried through.
5. Lacks understanding of the daily goal and/or art project goal.
6. Low effort – below expectations. Poor craftsmanship.
7. You didn't finish.

F 68

1. Did you forget to properly label your project? First initial, last name, title given by instructor and, format given by instructor. Example:
Kbachmann_tophat.jpg
  2. Project is not in drop box?
- Zeros for unsubmitted projects can be changed within 5 days of resubmission. No late points.